Report
"Two days Webinar on Reimagining Social Work Changing Times"

Webinar on Reimagining Social Work Changing Times was organized on 13th and 14 th June, 2020 jointly organised by our college and Eklavya Academy Yavatmal. The webinar has been planned with an objective of to create a training oriented approaches amongst the Faculties and the students. To provide a common learning platform for exchange of views on the current topic so that they could help. The disease Covid-19 has affected all sectors, our social work sector is no exception, so it needs to be discussed with all aspects. It will be important for us to learn about the effects of the Covid pandemic on higher education, social work training and changes in the field, as well as the new professional opportunities and skills required for social workers. To this end, we organized a special webinar (online workshop) to answer the questions of the students in the field of social work, to learn how to face the current challenges and to prepare for the future changes in the field of social work. It has greatly benefited not only the students but also the social work educators.

Participants interacted freely both days with resource persons. They are also discussed in detail about the given topic. The venue was the zoom cloud meeting Platform, 219 State level participants were virtually attended the webinar. The webinar was inaugurated by Dr. Vijayalakshmi Thote at 10:05 am. Dr. Jagdish Jadhav (Professor, Central University of Rajasthan) presided the first day session and our College Principal Dr. P. Y. Thote presided the second day session. Welcome speech was by Dr. Subhash Jadhao Convener of the webinar. The seminar Proceedings speech was delivered by Mr. Prashant Chavan, The session was concluded by the vote of thanks of Dr. Subhash Jadhao (convenor). This webinar must have surely benefitted all participants, students and given them a new professional practice perspective to this emerging in difficult situation of Social Work Practice and their importance of reimagining social work.
